

DO SOMETHING BOOKY

It's competition time!

We are having a "Do something Booky" competition to help us celebrate World Book Day.

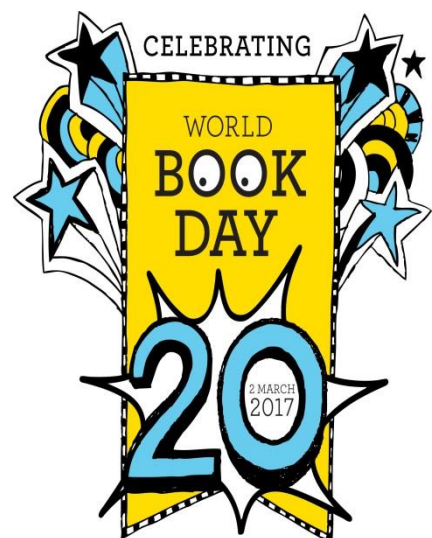

The Rules:

1. Any age can enter.
2. Use a book to inspire you.
3. Be CREATIVE!

Closing date: Monday 6th March

Entries to Mrs Hattrick

Look at the list of ideas below to get to you started.

Here are some ideas but you might have some better ones...

Arty ideas:

- Design a new cover for your favourite book.
- Draw an illustration to go with your favourite part of a book.
- Draw/paint/collage/make a model of your favourite character or place in a book.

Writing ideas:

- A diary entry
- A character profile or a wanted poster for your favourite baddie.
- Write an alternative ending to a story.
- Take your favourite character and write a new story with them in it.
- Write a poem about reading or a particular book or character.

Non-Fiction ideas:

- Draw a diagram of a gadget or vehicle from a story and write a manual on how to use it.
- Create a quiz based on a particular book.
- Research an author or illustrator and write their biography.

The list is endless!