Dear Parents

Below is a timetable for the SATs papers that all Year 6 pupils will take at the beginning of May. During that week, it is advised that the pupils should be going to bed at a reasonable time in the evening and should be having a good breakfast before attending school.

The tests are strictly timed and must be performed on the day stated in the table below. Pupils should try their best to attend even if they feel a little unwell.

Plenty of time will be allocated for revision in class and pupils will be provided with material to revise during the long Easter holiday, prior to their tests.

If you have any questions about these arrangements, I will be happy to answer them at the Parents Evening scheduled this term. Many thanks for your support.

Kind regards

Mrs M Langridge (Year 6 Class Teacher)
